CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

Length, $5\frac{1}{8}$ inches.

42—WHITE JADE CUP WITH TRAY

Ovoid cup with low foot, in greenish-white jade, plain and having a soft polish, the cup fitting into a flange on the tray. Tray oblong, the corners rounded and indented, and the upper surface carved in low relief with floral sprays, the swastika symbol and an ideograph; gray-white jade, brightly polished.

Length of tray, $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

43—GLASS PAPERWEIGHT (Ch'ien-lung)

Translucent, semi-transparent brilliant glass in a fine golden-yellow hue suffused with a delicate green; a Chinese has called it a lemon (or lime) jelly color. Carved in the form of a large fish leaping from waves where a huge dragon and other fishes are also found; the dragon in relief and undercutting, the lesser denizens of the deep in relief, and the waves and the scales of the fishes and dragon lightly incised. Brilliant surface.

Height, $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

44—FEI-TS'UI JADE BOWL WITH COVER

The bowl of flaring ovoidal pattern with bold foot, and without ornamentation; the cover, in inverted saucer form, decorated on the superior surface with emblematic bats and Shou medallions, carved in low relief, and two borders of key-fret incised. Both pieces in translucent jade with a soft and closely mingled mottling, the cover showing a soft polish, and the bowl a mirror surface.

Diameter, $4\frac{3}{8}$ inches.

45—JADE ORNAMENT

Figure of a crab, on his back a leaf and bud spray in low relief, carved in gray-white jade, showing russet mountains and brilliantly polished.

Length, $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

46—AGATE FLOWER VASE

Carved as a slender tree trunk, with a bird perched upon a branch of a peach tree of longevity in relief and undercutting at the side, a dog looking up at the bird from below. Red, brown and grayish translucent agate, brilliantly polished.

Height, $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

47—SMALL WHITE JADE DISH

Shallow and circular, of ovoid contour, with low foot. Transparent grayish-white jade, with soft polish.

48—AMETHYST ORNAMENT

Extended figure of a kylin, on an irregular base, his body raised on the hind legs, but his forepaws folded on the ground, and his head turned back over his shoulder.

Length, 6¼ inches.

49—AMETHYST ORNAMENT

Figure of a phoenix standing on rocks, carved in purplish pink crystal, the plumage in relief, and the whole brightly polished.

Length, 6 inches.

50—ANIMAL STATUETTE

The figure of a stag, partly recumbent, with head well thrown back, holding in its mouth a branch of the sacred fungus. Carved in hair crystal, largely opaque, generally grayish with red and brown markings.

Length, 5½ inches.

51—WHITE JADE TRAY

Oblong with rounded and indented corners. Thin, semi-transparent, greenish-white jade, the upper surface carved in low relief with a tree of the peaches of longevity, Chinese lilies, and a poem. On the reverse a dragon encircles a Shou medallion, similarly carved and incised.

Length, 7½ inches.

52—WHITE JADE VASE WITH COVER

Carved in form of a double gourd, with leaves, vine stems and smaller fruits in bold relief and openwork; soft polish.

Height, 4¾ inches.

53—WRITER'S WATER JAR

Carved in greenish-white jade, in ovoid form with short lip, the surface lightly incised with cloud scrolls, and three lizard dragons carved in relief and undercutting climbing over the shoulder. Has teakwood stand inlaid with silver wire.

Diameter, 5¼ inches.

54—WHITE JADE ORNAMENT

Group carving of three goats, all lying down, and on the back of the largest one a representation of the sun setting in a cloud bank. Soft polish.

Length, 4½ inches.

55—STATUETTE OF KUAN-YIN

Standing figure of the Chinese goddess of mercy in long robes and cowl, carved in relief in yellowish-white soapstone. The embroideries of her robe are incised and studded with jewels, and in her tiara is a pearl. Her hands are folded one over the other and in one she holds a scroll and in the other a rosary.

Height, 6¾ inches.

56—JADE LIBATION CUP

Greenish-white jade with russet mottlings, the cup proper oval and shaped as the end of a horn; spiral scroll handle at one side running the depth of the cup, and at the opposite side a short spur. Archaic animalistic decoration, lightly incised and modeled in relief, and a cross-hatched border. Inlaid stand.

Length, 5¾ inches.

57—JADE LIBATION CUP WITH COVER

An ancient form, the body in pitcher shape with broad and shallow spout, and monster-head loop handle with drop. The cover is also animalistic in design, and both cup and cover are decorated with ornaments patterned after those of Chou bronzes. The ornamentation is both in relief and incised, and under the rim of the cup are incised inscriptions, gilded.

Length, 4½ inches.

58—WRITER'S WATER WELL

Carved as a pomegranate, hollowed, with branches, leaves and smaller fruits in high relief and undercutting around it, the whole from a single piece of amethyst, brightly polished.

Length, 5 inches.

59—AGATE COUPE

Carved in the form of a peach of longevity, in white agate, with a branch and leaves of the tree, smaller peaches and an archaic dragon carved in relief in an encompassing layer of carnelian. Has tinted ivory stand.

Length, 5½ inches.

60—IMPERIAL SACRIFICIAL EMBLEM (Han)

Opaque gray and reddish-brown tomb jade, carved as a disc perforated at the center, across which lies an implement resembling a slender spear-head, flat on the side imposed upon the disc and ridged on its upper surface; called a kwan. Used in the ceremony when the Emperor was sacrificing to his ancestors. On one surface of the disc two archaic dragons and the flaming jewel in low relief, and on the surface of the spear-head above, a constellation, also in low relief. On the opposite surface of the disc are formal scrolls in relief, involving the fungus motive, and on the corresponding surface of the spear-head, the archaic dragons are repeated in a slightly varied form.

Length, 7½ inches.

61—AMETHYST VASE WITH COVER

Elongated flattened form, with dome cover, its decoration a carp leaping from waves, a dragon and bats, all carved in high relief. Brilliant polish. (Repaired.)

Height, 4¾ inches.

CHINESE (MANDARIN) NECKLACE OR ROSARY

"A long chain of one hundred and eight balls or beads. It is called the Chu-Chu, and it is intended to remind the wearer of the land of which he is a native. Of the one hundred and eight beads of which the chain consists, seventy-two are supposed to represent so many precious stones, minerals, and metals native to China; and the remaining thirty-six represent as many constellations or planets which shed their benign rays on the country. To the left side of this chain are attached two very short strings of smaller beads, supposed to impress upon the mind of the wearer the reverence he owes to his ancestors and the filial piety at all times due to his parents and guardians; to the right side of the chain is attached a short string of smaller beads to remind the wearer of the allegiance which he owes to the imperial throne of his country."—GENERAL TCHENG-KI-TONG: The Chinese Empire.

62—MANDARIN NECKLACE

Consisting of ninety-eight light brown opaque beads of petrified wood brilliantly polished, with pendants and spheres of richly mottled fei-ts'ui jade, and subsidiary strings of pink coral beads with pink tourmaline pendants.

(Illustrated)

Consisting of one hundred and eight beads of brilliant golden-yellow amber, subsidiary strings of red coral beads, and large intervening spheres and pendants of fei-ts'ui jade.

64—MANDARIN NECKLACE

Consisting of one hundred and two beads of black and dark colored quartz, brilliantly polished, side strings of pink tourmaline beads, and seed pearls, globes and pendants of fei-ts'ui jade, and pendants of aquamarine and pink tourmaline. Emerged from the Imperial Palace, Peking, during the troubles of the Revolution.

65—MANDARIN NECKLACE

Consisting of ninety beads of varicolored quartz with large globes of dark green jade, pendent strings of blue beads, and pendants of pink tourmaline with gold mountings inlaid with kingfisher's feathers. From the Imperial Palace, Peking, at the time of the Revolution.

66—AMBER ORNAMENT (Ch'ien-lung)

Ruby amber with warm golden translucence, carved as a flattened vase of ancient form with a kylin standing on rocks beside it. The vase bears relief and incised ornamentation, and the animal's scales are boldly carved. Has ivory stand carved in open work and tinted.

67—WRITER'S WATER CUP

Gray-white jade of greenish note, with veins and patches in russet brown, carved as a peach of longevity lying on its side with leaves and a smaller peach carved in relief on its shoulder, and a branch and stems in undercutting serving as handle. Soft polish of dull unctuous lustre.

Length, 4¾ inches.

68—JADE DISH

Greenish-gray jade, thin and semi-transparent, carved as a polyfoil dish of ovoid contour, on low foot. Soft waxen polish. (Rim slightly nicked.)

Length, 6⅛ inches.

69—ROCK CRYSTAL VASE WITH COVER

Broad bi-convex form, the narrow sides flattened, with bold foot and two elephant-head and loose ring handles; dome cover with knob finial. Clear and brilliant crystal, the base carved with a sceptre-head border in light relief.

Height, 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

70—ROCK CRYSTAL VASE WITH COVER

Flattened ovoidal form with deep foot and two loop and loose-ring handles, the loop in fungus-branch form; high dome cover with knob finial. Brilliantly polished rock crystal, with a bird on a blossoming plum branch carved in low relief on one face.

Height, 5 $\frac{5}{8}$ inches.

71—ROCK CRYSTAL VASE WITH COVER

Broad flattened form with low foot, the cover dome shaped; two loop handles carved as fungus branches, with loose rings. Bright polish.

Height, 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

72—ANIMAL STATUETTE

Standing figure of a horse, on a rude base, carved in quartz of gray-white and purplish-pink tone, brilliantly polished.

Height, 5 inches.

73—WHITE JADE ORNAMENT

Carved as the fruit of the Buddha's-hand citron in upright position with a small fruit and leaves by its side, on a stem worked in relief and undercutting and further modeled by incision. Soft polish. Occasional russet patches.

Height, 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

74—DOUBLE WATER WELL

Translucent white jade, carved as two lotus flowers in the seed pod stage, side by side and conjoined, with leaves and stems and a smaller lotus blossom carved in relief and undercutting, around, above and below them. Silver inlaid stand.

Length, 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

75—CRYSTAL ORNAMENT

Seated figure of a dog Fu, boldly carved in smoky crystal brilliantly polished, with the brocaded ball and a standing cub carved in opaque grayish crystal. Has inlaid stand.

Height, 8¾ inches.

170—Ivory Statuette (Ch'ien-lung)

The god of longevity, standing, his left hand gripping his long staff and his right hand holding a fan. Faint brownish-yellow patina.

Height, 11 $\frac{1}{8}$ inches.

171—Ivory Statuette (Ch'ien-lung)

Standing figure of a god of wine in long and closely clinging robes which conceal his hands.

Height, 11 inches.

172—Ivory Statuette (Ch'ien-lung)

Standing figure of Shou-lao, god of longevity, with smiling features, holding against his left shoulder one of the peaches of long life. Soft polish, areas of the robes in front of a grayish-ivory note, and large parts of the remaining surface showing a warm mahogany patina from the influence of incense fumes.

Height, 10 $\frac{5}{8}$ inches.

173—JADE VASE WITH COVER (Probably Early Ming)

Flask shape on pedestal foot, with broad neck and upright lip, and two dragon-head loop and loose ring handles; cover dome shaped with a rampant lion as finial. Mottled jade of slate gray, a creamy gray-white and pure white. On the obverse an immortal bearing a lotus branch and standing under a pine tree is carved in high relief in a layer of the pure white jade, and on the reverse animalistic motives from ancient bronzes appear in the gray in low relief.

Height, 10¼ inches.

174—FEI-TS'UI JADE VASE

Quadrilateral, on deep and spreading foot, with neck sharply curved from an abrupt shoulder, and straight lip; two archaic dragon loop handles, pierced and sustaining loose rings. On the broad faces of the vase, carvings in low relief representing archaic dragon types and the lineaments of the t'ao-t'ieh ogre; on the narrow ends bamboo trees incised, and on the neck a deep border in relief and incised. Pure white jade with sparse touches of emerald green.

Height, 8¼ inches.

174A—PEKING ENAMEL SNUFF BOTTLE (Ch'ien-lung)

Pilgrim-bottle shape; gilt mountings. On the broad faces transverse oval medallions with Chinese figures in European style, and on the ends upright oval medallions showing song birds on floral branches, in brilliant polychrome on a light green latticed ground.

174B—FEI-TS'UI JADE STATUETTE

Standing figure of a female deity, posed upon a base of open-work rockery and surrounded by emblems of longevity, with floral forms and long scrolling streamers carved in bold relief and undercutting and in the round. Richly colored jade, brilliantly polished, with a soft and delicate emerald translucence.

Height, 12 $\frac{7}{8}$ inches.

174C—WHITE JADE HANGING VASE

In ancient bronze form; quadrilateral, with broad and narrow sides, spreading foot and two dragon-scroll and loose-ring handles, and dome cover. To the upper rectangular loops of the handles attach chains of three links, connecting with a high-arched bail handle, from the bow of whose arch a twelve-link chain depends, connecting with the cover. All carved from a single block of pure white jade and brilliantly polished. Relief ornamentation in ogre, dentate and scroll motives.

Height, 15 inches.

175—WHITE JADE TEMPLE SET (Ch'ien-lung)

For Imperial use. The incense burner is of cauldron shape on three short monster-head feet, with upright scroll handles connected with the lip by transverse tubes; cover dome shaped with cylindrical and spreading finial. Both jar and cover decorated with delicate relief carvings in animalistic and symbolic motives of ancient bronzes, the cover bearing in addition three quatre-foils in bold relief carved with ideographic characters. Ovoid incense box with dome cover, on top of which a medallion encloses an ideograph. Vase, in flattened ovoidal form, with full, tapering neck, enlarged lip and pedestal foot. Obverse and reverse delicately carved with ideographs within medallions; gilt stopper and incense shovel, its handle a branch of red coral, (the latter repaired).

Height of incense burner, 5 inches; width across handle, 7 inches.

Height of vase, $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches; to top of handle, $10\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

176—PAIR WHITE JADE TEMPLE SCREENS

Oblong slabs of white jade, the tops lightly arched, with the god of longevity and other Taoist immortals and attendants in a mountainous landscape with pine trees and pavilions, all carved in cavo-rilievo, on the obverse; on the reverse an engraved decoration.

Height, $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

177—PAIR INDOOR GARDENS

Chrysanthemums in luxuriant bloom, the blossoms carved of white jade, the leaves inlaid with kingfisher's feathers, and below them smaller plants in blossom in different stones. In hexagonal jars of cloisonné enamel, decorated with lotus designs in polychrome on a turquoise-blue ground.

Height, 17¾ inches.

178—VASE OF FLOWERS (Ch'ien-lung)

A flattened inverted pear shape vase, made of natural stone colored in imitation of lapis-lazuli, carved in relief with a conventional lotus scroll, sceptre-head and other borders and animalistic handles. In it are peonies with leaves of kingfisher's feathers, and smaller shrubs, and a tall magnolia tree with white jade blossoms. (Repaired.) From the Peking Palace.

Height, 26 inches.

179—MINIATURE GARDEN (Ch'ien-lung)

Plants of green jade, carnelian, pink tourmaline and other materials, set into an inverted bell shaped jardinière standing on three elephant-head feet, in gilt with low relief ornamentation and studded with jewels. (One plant leaf broken.)

Height, 13¾ inches.

180—MINIATURE GARDEN (Ch'ien-lung)

A tree with green jade leaves and under it a rosebush in blossom, in an oblong jardinière with chamfered corners and engraved ornamentation, bearing on each side a panel of cloisonné enamel.

Height, 12 inches.

181—JADE FLOWER VASE (Sung)

Rich greenish jade with dark chestnut-brown mottlings, carved as a large lotus leaf deeply cupped and bound up with stems, also a smaller leaf similarly cupped beside it, both veined in light relief. Carved in bold relief about them are large stems, a flower and bud, a frog and two herons. Soft and brilliant polish.

Height, 8 inches.

182—WRITER'S TRIPARTITE WATER WELL (Probably Early Ming)

Gray-white jade of greenish trend, with dark russet touches, some of them of a deep mahogany brown, carved as a cluster of lotus stems supporting two seed-pods which are hollowed to serve as water cups and a deep curling leaf serving as a third cup, with a wide open blossom at one side and an opening blossom opposite it. The ornamentation in high relief and undercutting. Soft polish with dull lustre.

Length, 7½ inches.

183—TABLE SCREEN (Ch'ien-lung)

A fan-shaped panel on an ivory stick, set into an elaborate stand of cinnabar lacquer. On the face of the panel, the bamboo, plum, lotus and chrysanthemum, also a magpie and butterflies, all in kingfisher's feathers variously colored, on a gold ground. The standard is elaborately carved by incision with the dragon, floral and other motives, and on the obverse is inlaid with a white jade medallion, a fei-ts'ui jade panel, and two four-clawed dragons in mother-of-pearl.

Height, 18½ inches.

184—WHITE JADE VASE WITH COVER

Pilgrim-bottle shape on deep and slightly spreading foot, with two loop handles formed of floral branches which support large loose rings; conical bell-shaped cover with blossom finial and two loop handles with small loose rings. Relief ornamentation in conventional floral motives within palmate medallions, and formal borders. Gray-white jade brilliantly polished.

Height, $11\frac{1}{8}$ inches.

185—WHITE JADE VASE WITH COVER (Ch'ien-lung)

Quadrilateral with straight sloping shoulder, spreading foot and deep neck; two dragon-scroll handles with loose rings. On all sides a relief ornamentation presenting birds, flowers, fruits and objects of household adornment, inlaid in lapis-lazuli, tourmaline, amber and other materials. A dome cover with loop handle and two loose rings, studded with varicolored jewels. From the Imperial Palace at Peking during the Revolution.

Height, 11 inches.

186—AGATE ORNAMENT

Figure of a duck squatted down, and head thrown well back and erect, wings carved in bold relief, and plumage in relief and incised. Richly mottled agate, with areas of clouded crystal aspect, deep tones of slate-blue, black, and touches of brownish-red. Brilliant polish.

Length, 9½ inches.

187—SOAPSTONE STATUETTE (Ch'ien-lung)

Seated figure of Kuan-yin with left hand free above her left knee, and holding in her right hand, which rests on the right knee, a short scroll. She is in flowing robes and wears the cowl. Yellowish-gray soapstone of dull lustre, with occasional purplish-pink fleckings; the cowl blackened. On red lacquer base with conventional lotus carvings in relief.

Height with base, 9 inches.

188—ROCK CRYSTAL STATUETTE

Standing figure of the god of longevity with his staff and carrying a peach, accompanied by a boy attendant. At his back grows a peach tree in fruit and a plant of the sacred fungus, and at its side is a stork.

Height, 8 inches.

189—WHITE JADE ORNAMENT

Carved as two phœnixes, in variations from the conventional type, standing on a rock base which also supports a tree bearing large flowers.

Length, 9¾ inches.

190—ROCK CRYSTAL VASE WITH COVER

Bulbous pilgrim-bottle shape on low spreading foot, with two animal-mask loop handles supporting loose rings. All sides carved in high relief and etched, with a decoration which includes eight various dragons and the flaming jewel. Dome cover surmounted by a ninth dragon, carved in relief and undercut, as handle.

Height, 9¼ inches.

191—ROCK CRYSTAL VASE WITH COVER

Bulbous flask shape on deep foot with monster-head loop handles having loose rings. Dragons of different sorts to the number of six are carved in high relief on all sides of the vase, and another in relief and undercutting serves as handle to the dome cover.

Height, 9⅝ inches.

192—GREEN JADE SCEPTRE

An ovoidal six-sided body resting on a high spreading foot supports a tall hexagonal column or chimney, which at its top is flanked by two short cylinders of the same form. Two dragon handles. Ground of incised swastika fret with relief decoration of blossoms and running animals. Rich brown patina with olive notes. (Repaired.)

Height, 20 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

585—BRONZE SACRIFICIAL VESSEL (Chou)

Called "Tung". Ovoid with spreading base on three short feet, with ram's-head loop handles with drops. Laterally fluted, between relief bands of scroll and animalistic design. Within bottom a long inscription incised. Olive, brown and red patina with earth incrustations. Teakwood cover.

Diameter, 9½ inches.

586—BRONZE INCENSE BURNER (Ming)

Quadrilateral, the neck angular and the body rounded, on heavy monster-head feet, prominent corner ridges and heavy recurving handles. Primitive decoration after Chou conventions, in light relief on incised ground. Dark brown patina. Teakwood cover.

Height, 11¾ inches.

587—BRONZE MEDICINE BOILER (Han)

Ovoid with loop handles in rope form, flat projecting rim and low foot. Band of incised scroll decoration in conventional form. Mottled brown patina with green and purplish notes heavily encrusted.

Diameter, 14 inches.

588—PAIR GILT BRONZE STATUARY GROUPS (Sung)

Figures of the two goddesses Pu Yü and Wen Ji, usually found accompanying Kuan-yin, representative respectively of wisdom and intelligence, the one seated on a lion, the other on an elephant, the animals lying down on lotus bases. Elaborate relief ornamentation, and vestiges of painting. Brownish patina and yellowish earth incrustations.

Height, 15 inches.

Third Afternoon

589—BRONZE QUADRILATERAL JAR (Han)

Sides broadly swelling; quadrangular lip and foot. Two animal-head handles in low relief with large loose rings. Green, brown, red and grayish patina.

Height, 15 inches.

590—BRONZE WAR BELL (Han)

Oval and tall, with bulbous expansion at the top, above which a flange projects enclosing a solid platform which supports a standing tiger as handle. Called "Fu Chen" and used to hang on trees for beating to frighten the enemy. Invented by Tsze Kan Liang, first Premier of the Han dynasty. Incised and delicate relief ornamentation. Rich black patina of soft lustre.

Height, 15½ inches.

591—BRONZE GLOBULAR JAR WITH ORIGINAL COVER (Han)

Diameter, 17½ inches.

(Illustrated)

593—PAIR BRONZE BATTLE DRUMS (Han)

Broad and low inverted pear-shape with four loop handles. Chou ornamentation in scroll and geometrical forms in low relief and incised. At meal time in war these drums were reversed and used as boilers. Brown patina with green touches and gray earth incrustations.

Diameter, 18¼ inches.

594—GILT BRONZE STATUETTE (Ming)

Seated Buddha on a lotus throne in attitude of meditation. Gilt partly rubbed, and touched with greenish patina.

Height, 12 inches.

No. 592

595—BUDDHISTIC STATUARY GROUP IN BRONZE (T'ang)

The goddess of wisdom seated sidewise on an elaborately caparisoned kylin which stands upon lotus flowers that float upon rolling waves. Brownish-black and greenish-brown patina, and traces of painting in cream-white and red.

Height, 16 inches.

596—GILT BRONZE STATUETTE (Ming)

Buddha seated in the attitude of meditation, hands palm upward, on a lotus throne. Brown and black patina from long exposure to dense incense fumes.

Height, 12 inches.

597—GILT BRONZE STATUETTE (Ming)

Buddha seated in meditation, right hand palm outward, on a thalamus. Black patina from incense fumes.

Height, 12 inches.

598—GILT BRONZE STATUETTE (Ming)

Buddha in meditation, seated on a thalamus, right hand resting on knee. Thickly encrusted green patina, and brown and black areas from incense fumes.

Height, 12 inches.

599—BRONZE STATUETTE (Ming)

Buddhistic figure in priestly robes standing with hands clasped in an attitude of devotion, on a lotus base. Robes richly decorated in elaborate engraving and low relief, and showing traces of gilding and polychrome painting. Greenish patina.

Height, 18½ inches.

600—GILT BRONZE STATUETTE (Ming)

The goddess of mercy seated cross-legged and holding an infant in her raised hands. She is enthroned on a large lotus blossom, with lesser blossoms for her two attendants (disappeared), which rests upon a standard set into a balconied base. The richly gilded surface largely turned to warm reddish-brown through the action of incense fumes.

Height, 23¼ inches.

601—BRONZE HEAD (Sung)

Buddhistic head of calm and fine expression, broken from a statuette at the neck, the broken end retaining a part of a richly ornamented robe. Remnants of gilding and painting, with brown, green and blue patina and earth incrustations.

Height, 6½ inches.

602—IRON HEAD OF THE GOD OF EARTH (Wei)

Broken short off at the neck, with the front of the neck remaining. He wears an elaborate crown modeled in openwork. Black patina with rust patches and grayish-yellow earth deposits.

Height, 8 inches.

603—IRON HEAD (T'ang)

Handsome and dignified head of finely modeled features, broken from a statue at the neck. Hair in relief lines; high headdress, and blossom earrings. Black patina with large areas of rust, much earthy encrustment and reddish and bluish areas due in part to early painting.

Height, 8 inches.

604—IRON HEAD (Wei)

Broken at the neck from a Buddhistic statue, which had been much painted. The surface is rough and variously colored, through disintegration and the several paintings, appearing largely in quiet yellow and dull red with gray earth attachments; the reposeful features firmly modeled.

Height, 8 inches.

605—IRON HEAD (T'ang)

Finely modeled Buddhistic head with tapering neck, high head-dress knotted on top of the head, and the hair in bold relief waves over the forehead and temples. Grayish patina, yellowish earth incrustations, and considerable vestiges of various painting.

Height, 16½ inches.
